8 ABRYEL MICHOLE-MEENA WILDER, et

10 Plaintiffs,

11 v.

12 JAY ROBERT INSLEE, et al.,

13 Defendants.

Cause No. C21-0465RSL

ORDER OF DISMISSAL

14 On April 12, 2021, plaintiff Abryel Wilder was ordered to provide a more definite 15 statement of the claims asserted in this litigation, clearly and concisely identifying the acts of 16 which each named defendant is accused and how those acts violated the legal rights of the 17 named plaintiffs. Dkt. # 6. The Court pointed out a number of fatal flaws in the original pleading 18 and notified plaintiff that “[t]he amended complaint will replace the existing complaint in its 19 entirety.” Dkt. # 6 at 4. Plaintiff subsequently filed an “Amended Complaint and Request for 20 Preliminary Injunction, Response to Order for More Definite Statement.” Dkt. # 8. The 21 Amended Complaint chronicles Ms. Wilder’s traumatic childhood, her various relationships and 22 marriages, subsequent custody and support disputes, and efforts to seek remedies for wrongs
23 allegedly done to her and her children. It appears that Ms. Wilder intends to pursue claims on 24 behalf of herself and two entities that she owns against Governor Inslee, an unidentified agency
25 of the State of Washington, Chiae Wilder (an ex-husband), Aimee Sutton, Mark Gouras, Mark
26
27
28

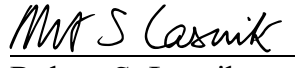

1 Hillman, Sharon R. Harvey, Diedre McCormack Martin, and Chong Wilder (Chiae's mother).
2 She asserts that defendants have violated fifty-six separate statutes or constitutional provisions.
3 the birth of her children, and starting in 1980. She seeks injunctive relief against domestic abuse
4 and any attempt to deprive her and her corporations of exclusive possession of a house at 32328
5 7th Ave. SW, Federal Way, Washington 98023.
6

7 Plaintiff's revised statement of the claims remains deficient under the standards
8 articulated in 28 U.S.C. § 1915(e)(2) and Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 8(a)(2). There is no
9 indication that Ms. Wilder is a licensed attorney or otherwise able to act as a representative of 10 Yah's Knights and Dames Community Development or YZ RA EL, LLC. The new complaint
11 consists of 54 singled-spaced pages and repeats many of the fatal errors previously identified.
12 Some defendants are not mentioned in the factual allegations, and it is likely that none of the 13 defendants would understand how the alleged conduct gives rise to a cause of action under any 14 of the statutes and constitutional provisions listed at Dkt. # 8 at 46-50. Neither defendants nor 15 the Court are obligated to search through the proposed pleading in order to determine whether a 16 viable cause of action is alleged: the burden of providing "a short and plain statement of the 17 claim showing that the pleader is entitled to relief" falls squarely on plaintiff. She has not met
18 her burden
19
20
21

22 The above-captioned matter is hereby DISMISSED without prejudice. No additional 23 documents will be accepted for filing under this cause number other than a Notice of Appeal. If 24 plaintiff opts to refile a complaint related to these events, she is strongly advised to name only a 25 single defendant and confine the factual allegations to that defendant's conduct and the legal 26 claims against that defendant. Absent allegations showing that Ms. Wilder is a licensed attorney
27

1 or otherwise authorized to act as a representative of another person, any renewed claims should
2 be brought only on her own behalf.
